

Lewis Hall

Located between the Golden Dome and St. Joe's Lake, our "Home Behind the Dome" features beautiful views of the lake, was renovated in the summer of 2012, and houses a thriving community of amazing women!

Established in 1965, Lewis originally served as a residence for religious women pursuing graduate degrees before the University admitted women. Thus, it is the oldest hall that has only had women living as residents.

The Coop

Lewis Hall is home to 19 seniors, 58 juniors, 104 sophomores, and 86 first year students. In the past several years, our women have served the campus as leaders, taking on roles such as ND Band Drum Major, Campus Ministry Intern, and Hall President's Council. Through our Hall Council, our women design activities that inspire growth, build relationships, and cultivate love of God and one another. In September, Lewis makes use of its five large kitchens and hosts the Lewis Hall of Pancakes (LHOP). This year, we welcomed over 1,100 visitors to our all-you-can-eat night of delicious breakfast foods! Our spirit week, Crush, fall in April and is a tropical themed week of social activities which culminates in a BBQ and dance. Also Lucenarium (Luce), weekly night prayer every Monday, provides opportunity for women-led liturgy.

Head Hens

In addition to the Rector and 2 Assistant Rectors, Lewis Hall is led by a staff of 8 Resident Assistants. RAs lead their peers by building community, upholding behavioral expectations, and modeling healthy living. Assistant Rectors have the unique opportunity to share life with undergraduate students within the Residential Life model at Notre Dame by fostering a sense of community within the hall, mentoring students to be effective leaders, and supporting women to be successful students. Assistant Rectors serve as Advisors for Hall Council Commissioners, mentor RAs, and assist the Rector in the daily running of the hall. In addition, Hall Staff serves as the primary support system for our residents, particularly in moment of difficulty or crisis.
