

Morrissey Manor

About Us

We are a tight knit community of approximately 180 residents located on the historic and beautiful South Quad of the University of Notre Dame. Our Hall Staff consists of one Rector, two Assistant Rectors (two positions are available for the 2024-2025 Academic Year), and seven Resident Assistants. Our passions include food, sports, and spending time with each other in our center lounges or around a fire. 2025 is a very special year as we will be celebrating 100 years at Notre Dame.

Assistant Rector Responsibilities	Duty
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Duty (detailed to the right) ● Attending Sunday staff meetings and other meetings as needed ● Participation (and potential coordination) of the spiritual life of the hall, including liturgies and retreats ● Having disciplinary, formative, and relationship building interactions with residents ● Being an active presence to the residents by hosting events and spending time with them ● Various administrative tasks, including budget tracking, shopping, working with hall employees, and other tasks as assigned *Responsibilities will be assigned each year based on Assistant Rector's skills, interests, and desire for growth	Each head staff (Rector/ARs) have one consistent weeknight duty for the semester (Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday) For weekends, we have a flexible scheduling process where generally each head staff member will take either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Thursday and Sunday ● Friday ● Saturday This weekend schedule will generally rotate weekly, but can be flexible given busy schedules Break duty will be split evenly depending on the schedules of the Head Staff

Message from Rector Matt Tucci

I appreciate your interest in considering an Assistant Rector position at Morrissey Manor. The Assistant Rector's gifts and presence make an indispensable impact on the lives of our residents.

If you have any questions about Morrissey and/or the Assistant Rector position, please feel free to contact me at mtucci@nd.edu.

Sincerely,

Matt Tucci

About me:

I am a Louisville native who has spent years living and ministering in many places in the Midwest and around the world. I received an undergraduate degree in Communication from Purdue University. After Purdue, I earned my Master of Arts in Catholic Philosophical Studies from Saint Meinrad School of Theology, and then a Baccalaureate in Sacred Theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, Italy. I then ministered in various capacities for six years in parish, high school, and university settings in Indianapolis and Jeffersonville, Indiana. Prior to Morrissey, I served as a life coach and then educator at a school in South Bend. I enjoy taking long walks, working out, art, studying philosophy and history, reading, and following Premier League and Serie A soccer.

